NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

Barbara and I, and our son Darrell, attended the annual West Texas Press Association Convention in San Angelo this past weekend. And being in the newspaper business in West Texas this is one of the high points of our year.

For many West Texas Publishers this is their only vacation. And for us it used to be about our only real vacation until we started closing in July for a week. But it still is a mini-vacation for us as it comes at about the time summer is over.

Because I, along with a great deal of help from Barbara, serve as executive director and secretary-treasurer of the Association, the weekend is a combination of work and play. Not only do we have the responsibility of registering all of the people attending and making many of the arrangements for the meeting, but we also attend the business sessions where we hope to pick up knowledge that helps us put out a better newspaper for the great people of Hamlin.

One of the highlights of the weekend session was a speech by House Speaker Bill Clayton. A number of years ago Clayton was on one of our programs concerning Water for West Texas. He was very impressive at that time but he has grown in stature considerably over the past several years. (We use the word stature figuratively because from our 6'5" vantage point he is very short.)

Two of the most impressive things that the Speaker had to say during his speech concerned future taxes and the new constitution that will be voted on this November.

Clayton offered a faint ray of hope that Texas can escape a massive new tax bill when the 65th Legislature meets in 1977.

He said the possibility of escaping the new taxes hinges on three conditions:

"If the economy continues to show signs of recovery and sales tax revenues increase; if a reorganization of the state executive department to increase efficiency occurs; and if oil and gas are deregulated. I am willing to predict that we may escape with no new taxes," speculated Clayton.

"Texas is being absolutely raped of its natural resources with no recourse," blasted Clayton in reference to federal regulation of oil and gas.

The speaker allowed that increased tax revenue from taxes on deregulated oil and gas could go a long way toward filling the state coffers, eliminating the need for the predicted massive tax bill believed to be necessary in the next legislature.

FROM RANGER JC—

Bill Cork, Track and Field Star, to Transfer to ACC

Bill Cork, track and field star from Hamlin High School and Ranger Junior College, announced Thursday he is transferring to Abilene Christian College.

Cork signed an ACC scholarship agreement Thursday for ACC track coach Don Smith at Abilene's Towne Crier Steakhouse.

Cork's father, Bill W. Cork Sr., and high school track coach, Bill Grissom, were in Abilene with the versatile athlete for the announcement.

Cork won three high school state individual championships and one Texas junior college state title and paced both Hamlin High and Ranger College to Texas team championships. He owns best marks of 9.6 and 21.3 in the sprints, 46.6 in the open quarter, 6-8 in the high jump and 23-5 in the long jump.

On relay assignments he has turned in a 46.1 quarter and 20.1 in the 220.

"He could have been in the 45s last year," Smith said. "If he had stayed healthy, noboby could have stayed with him."

Cork set a National JC Athletic Association record of 46.6 at the Wildcat Relays March 15. He also won the high jump and anchored both RJC winning relays and was named the JC division's outstanding athlete.

He was hampered later by a pulled hamstring muscle, but he did run a 46.59 to win the open quarter in the Texas JC meet, pace Ranger to the team championship and tie his own NJCAA record (although it was broken later). He was third in the national JC meet in 47.55.

"Cork is as fine a quartermiler as there is in the Southwest," Smith said. "And Billy Nelson (ACC sophomore-to-be from Caldwell) is right there with him. They are two of the best quartermilers in the Southwest."

Cork's signing gives ACC top potential in the mile relay next spring. "We're going after the mile relay if everybody stays healthy," Smith added.

Nelson, who ran against Cork in Class AA state competition in Austin, ran 47.0 in the open quarter and 46.9 on a relay leg as an ACC freshman in 1975. The other top two candidates are sophomore-to-be Calvin Satberry from San Antonio Highlands (48.9 and 47.2r) and freshman Randy Baker of Houston Westbury (47.8).

At the 1974 state Class AA meet in Austin, Cork defeated Nelson in the open quarter, but Nelson anchored Caldwell to victories in both relays.

"The thing that makes Cork so valuable is that he's so versatile," Smith said. "He could be a great intermediate hurdler and he has the endurance to run the relays."

"He's a fine individual, an outstanding young man," Smith added. "I think many times you win with character. He's a real conscientious trainer."

Cork won state as a junior in the quarter (47.8) and high jump (6-4½) and repeated as state champ as a senior in the 440 (47.2). Hamlin also took the team title both years under coach Grissom. Cork won numerous other district and regional blue ribbons in the sprints, 440, high jum, long jump and relays.

He won all-state honors in high school twice in track and field and was all-district in both football and basketball at Hamlin. The 5-11, 140-pounder is a 1974 graduate of Hamlin High School and plans to study industrial education at ACC.

"We're happy to hear he's signing with ACC," Hamlin coach Grissom said. "We're glad he'll still be in Texas and close enough that we can still watch him run."

Cork was coached as a freshman at Ranger in 1974-75 by Orland Aldridge, who recently resigned at Ranger to coach at Garden City, Kan., Junior College.

Stamford Officer Named County Probation Officer

Louis E. Johnson, a member of the Stamford Police Department for 12 years, has been appointed juvenile probation officer for Jones County.

The Jones County commissioners and County Judge Leon Thurman, after reviewing 22 applications for the position, named Johnson to the position last Monday.

The office was created for the county following a grand jury recommendation earlier this year that the county look into obtaining a full time juvenile probation officer. Judge Thurman acted as juvenile judge and officer previously.

A Criminal Justice Council grant for $16,216 was approved by Gov. Dolph Briscoe, enabling the county to accept applications for the post. The grant was approved July 15, but became effective June 1.

Johnson will assume his duties Aug. 15.

Born and raised in Stamford, Johnson said he will continue to live there. His wife, Florene, is an LVN at Teakwood Manor. The couple has three sons, Roger, 20; Scott, 18; and Mike, 17.

Johnson attended school in Stamford and graduated from Ranger Junior College in 1956, following two years in the Army. He has taken some classes at Hardin-Simmons University and has lived in Stamford since 1960. Prior to that he had lived in Hamlin for a number of years.

He joined the Stamford police force June 2, 1963 and was a patrolman for three years. He became a sergeant and held that position for seven years, prior to being named assistant police chief under retired Police Chief B. Q. Cooper. He has continued to serve in that position under Police Chief Duayne Meford.

Bonds Cancels Saturday Meet the Piper Night

Hamlin football fans will have to wait another week to see a dress rehearsal of the 1975 Pipers as Coach David Bonds cancelled the Meet the Piper night scheduled here Saturday.

The first full dress look at the Pipers will be next Friday, Aug. 22, when the Pipers host Seymour here in a full scrimmage.

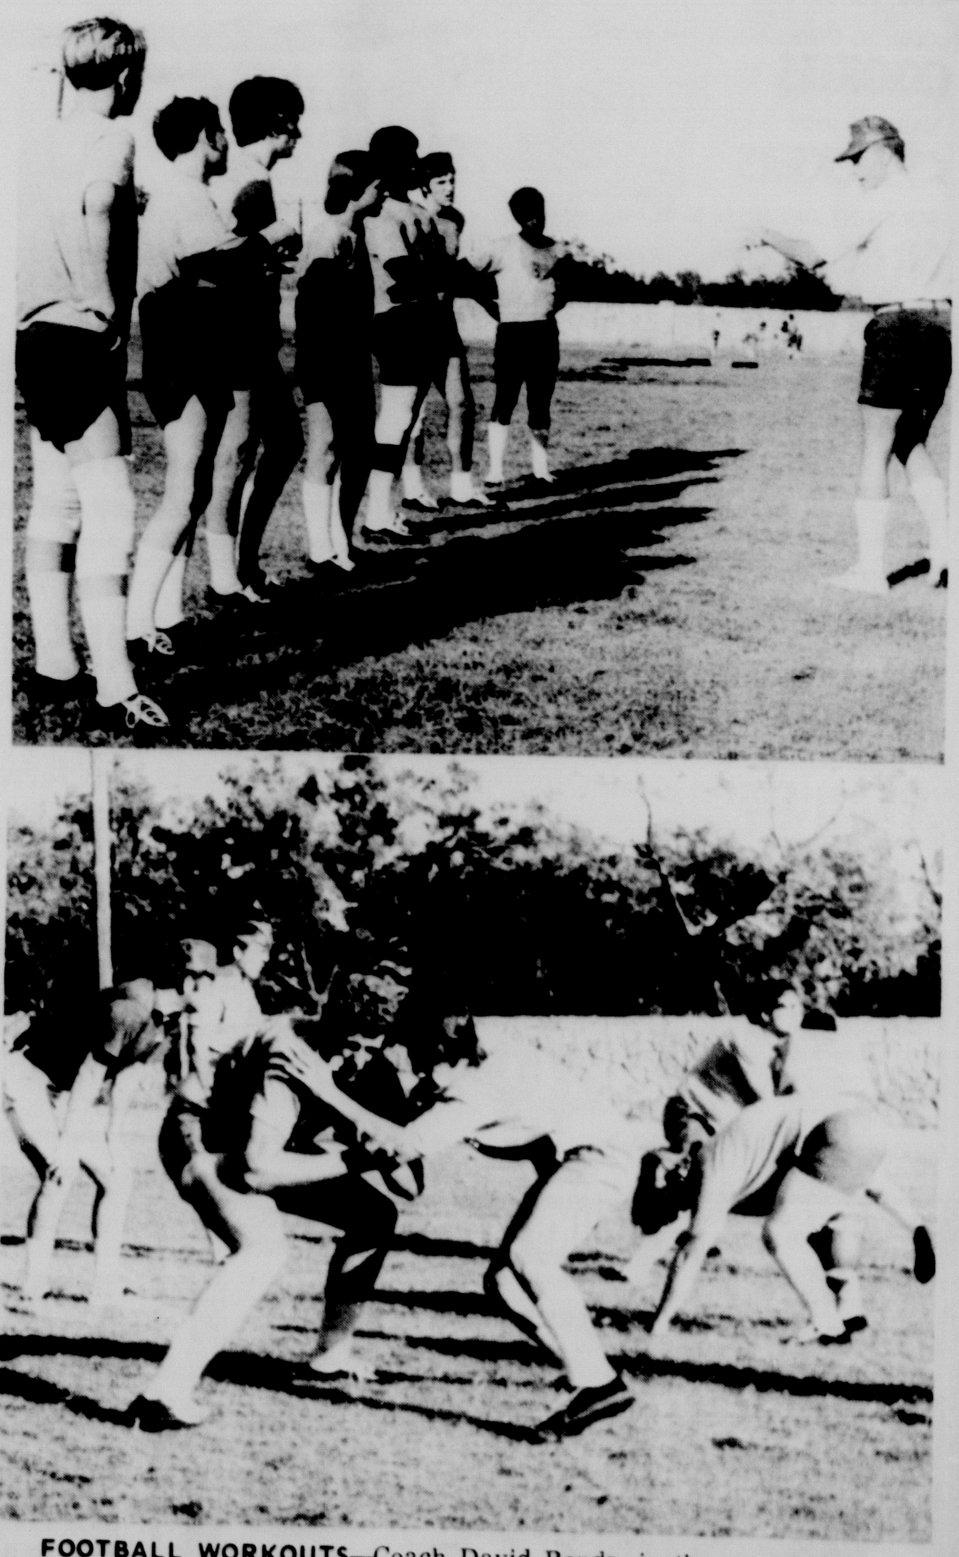

Coach Bonds called off the intra-squad scrimmage set for Saturday because of several minor injuries to a number of his varsity players.

Under UIL rules, the boys have been working out in shorts for the first part of this week and will don pads for the first time Friday morning.

Taking part in the workouts are 12 seniors, 15 juniors, 14 sophomores and 11 freshmen.

Coach Bonds has 14 returning lettermen to build his team around this season. He said Tuesday morning that the kids were looking real good and that they are having some very good workouts. The morning workouts start at 7 a.m. and the evening workouts begin at 6 p.m.

Coach Bonds said that he will be running the Wishbone offense again this year and will use the split-six defense again.

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(Aug. 7, 1925)

Almost all plans have been completed for what will probably be the biggest and grandest celebration ever staged by the business men of Hamlin. Numerous attractions, such as shows, merry-go-round, ferris wheel, rodeos, ball games, etc. have been booked to appear at this picnic.

The Picnic Committee wants to borrow 50 wash pots on Wednesday, Aug. 12, to cook the meat for the picnic. There will be a system of tagging the borrowed pots to prevent them from being lost. If you have a pot that you will loan, notify W. W. Collier either Monday or Tuesday of next week.

Everybody around Hamlin has heard of the "Wild-Cat" Lake or tank. This is on the Hood Ranch, nine miles north east of Hamlin. This famous lake of pretty deep water has been taken in by two owners, W. T. and M. W. Hood, and will hereafter be under their supervision. They have built some bathing facilities out there, such as dressing rooms, springboards and a high diving scaffold. A small fee of 25 cents will be charged for the privilege of enjoying this water.

Temporary organization of the Hamlin Chapter Izaak Walton League of America has been effected and petition for charter forwarded to the National headquarters containing the signatures of 18 Hamlin citizens, hunters, fishermen and lovers of the out doors. The Izaak Walton League is a National organization for the protection, propagation and conservation of our game, fish and wild life and the restoration of the outdoors of America.

(Aug. 5, 1955)

Members of the board of directors of the Midwest Electric Cooperative were renamed at the fifteenth annual membership meeting held under a "big top" at the fair grounds at Roby last Friday. Among attendants were scores from the Hamlin area. Directors are John Stavely of Fluvanna, Ted McArthur of Rotan, Ted Merchant of Sweetwater, A. B. Aaron of Rotan, Grady Williams and J. J. Henry of Hermleigh and Vernon Harris, Hamlin.

In a called session of the City Council Thursday morning, E. B (Buddy) Watson was named police chief of Hamlin. He will take office Monday, Aug. 15. Simultaneously, the resignation of J. H. Foster, who has been chief of police for 13 years, was accepted. His resignation, like wise, will become effective on Aug. 15.

Coaches Truman Nix, Jim Herridge and Harrell Blackburn of the Hamlin High School athletic staff are in San Antonio this week attending the annual Texas Coaching Association school. In attendance are about 1,500 Texas coaches. The school will close Friday evening with the annual North-South exhibition football game. The two teams are composed of the senior all-stars of the past season of Texas football.

Two new wildcats and one well being prepared for testing highlighted the oil news of the past several days in the Hamlin section.

TEN YEARS AGO
(Aug. 5, 1965)

Joe Hudspeth's tire and appliance is observing their ninth anniversary with a special promotion this week. Twenty-five prizes are being given during the event. The 25 prizes include a General Electric portable T.V., a Marlin 22 rifle, two suiter Amelia Earhart Luggage, 16 cigarette lighter sets and six double roasters. Everyone is invited to register for the free prizes to be given away Aug. 14.

The Hamlin Chapter 460, Order of the Eastern Star, will observe the annual Rob Morris program with an ice cream supper at the City Park Thursday (tonight) at 7 p.m. The event is in honor of the founder of Eastern Star. Members and their families will take part in the observance.

Voters residing within the Hamlin School District and voters residing within the McCaulley School District will vote Saturday on whether or not the two school districts shall be combined. There will be an election held in each of the school districts and results of both elections must be favorable before the districts can be consolidated.

T. C. Blankinship and Milburn Wink, Vocational Agriculture Teachers in Hamlin High School, will participate in the Statewide In-Service Education Workshop for Teachers of Vocational Agriculture, Aug. 10-13, according to George Hurt, State Director of Vocational Agriculture. The four-day meeting will be held in Dallas as a part of the program in Vocational Agriculture to further improve the professional competency of the state's teachers.

Although Clayton did not come out directly in support of the new constitution to be voted on this fall, he did make a strong plea for its passage. While he admitted that there were some areas of the new constitution that he did not necessarily care for he said that his was probably the best that the people of West Texas could hope for.

It was his contention that Texas will get a new constitution, if not this time, it will the next or the next. And he felt that the longer we wait the more influence that the people of the major cities will have on any document that will be drawn. It was his opinion that this was probably the best document that West Texans could hope to come up with.

"The new constitution will give us tools to do some things for ourselves without waiting for federal intervention," he asserted. "If the voter is informed then the decision will be right for Texas," Clayton told the newsmen, telling them the responsibility was theirs.

MANMADE

A man made this beautiful little waterfall and improved his part of a little stream that ran by his house.

Another man on another stream threw trash in the water and let weeds grow up around it so that the beauty of the creek was obscured.

Man fashions many things out of that which God has created. Beauty or ugliness can result from our decisions as to what we will do with divine raw materials. Dedication to God and the desire to emulate Him usually makes the difference in what we do with what God has provided.

Let God find you in His church.

Philosopher Gets Off On Dangerous Ground When He Asks A Women's Lib Question

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One gets off on some dangerous ground this week but it's his lookout, not ours.

Dear editor:

I have never given much thought to Women's liberation except to conclude it's all right with me so long as the meals are on the table on time, but I'm now convinced men ought to be giving more attention to the subject. There's something there to be learned.

For instance, examine Indira Gandhi, the woman Prime Minister of one of the world's most populous countries and frequently pointed to as a prime example of women's ability to become political leaders.

When Mrs. Gandhi was found guilty of violating India's election laws and was faced with being barred from office, what does she do, hem and haw and dodge and hire a battery of lawyers and lie on television like a man would do? Of course not. She just got a law passed saying the law she violated wasn't there any more, never was in the first place, and anybody who objected was jailed.

I have not had the nerve to ask in the presence of women whether any of the people she jailed were women.

Changing the subject, which I'd better do in a hurry, I notice that some environmentalists, bent on protecting all species except possibly fleas when they'e on their dogs in their city apartments, have now come out against the story of Little Red Riding Hood, on the grounds that it "has done great damage to wolves by making them a symbol of evil."

Of course they're right about this. All that wolf did was eat up a grandmother and appropriate her clothes and eye glasses, which obviously she had no further use for. Grndmothers are not an endangered species and these slanders on wolves have got to stop.

It's the same thing with coyotes and sheep. Ranchers are always denouncing coyotes for destroying their flocks, whereas it's the sheep's fault for being so helpless. Why don't they take care of themselves and grow a shell like an armadillo? Nobody's going to pull the wool over an environmentalist's eyes. If they'd been here earlier we'd still have dinosaurs and a lot less oil to squabble over.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Sunflower Producers Urged To Exercise Patience, Caution

Early planted sunflower crops in Jones County have completed the bloom stage and are now in a period of grain filling, says County Agent, Kirby Clayton. Since this is the period in which oil contents and seed weight are being determined, farmers need to be careful not to stop plant growth too quickly with harvest-aid chemicals. Early killing could have a drastic effect on final yields.

The agent says that with the excellent moisture conditions prevailing on the High Plains, it could take four to six weeks after completion of the bloom stage for seed to reach full maturity.

By that time, he points out, the back of the head and stalk should be lemon yellow in color and most of the leaves will be dead or appear to be dying. The triangular shaped bracts on the outer edge of the head will be brown and brittle. The seed in the center of the head will be as dark in color and as firm as the seed on the outer edge.

When these characteristics are noted, the seed is mature but the fleshy head base (which when cut open with a knife looks somewhat like a sponge) will not be sufficiently dry for combining. To avoid adding this high-moisture foreign matter to the seed during the combing operation, the head base must be dry, Clayton cautions.

Several weeks could be required for the head base to dry naturally. During this period seed will begin to shatter and some yield will be lost. The best alternative is rush the final drying process with the use of a harvest-aid chemical.

Recently, Paraquat was cleared for use of a sunflower desiccant in Texas. The chemical may be applied at a rate of 1 to 2 pints per acre when sunflower seeds are mature, Clayton says. Five gallons of spray mix (Paraquat plus water) should be used when treating by air and 20 to 40 gallons with ground equipment. For best results, a surfactant such as Ortho X-77 should be added at a rate of 1 quart per 100 gallons of water.

Read all label directions carefully before using Paraquat, Clayton emphasizes.

Once a harvest-aid chemical is applied, the crop will be ready to harvest in 7 to 10 days. A combine equipped with a sunflower header attachment should be immediately available, because delays could be costly in terms of seed loss due to shattering and bird feeding.

"Keep in mind, Paraquat is a non-selective desiccant. This means it will kill any plant tissue it contacts, including cotton, sorghum and other crops in adjacent fields.

"Chemical drift is a potentially serious problem," Clayton says. "Since desiccation will, in most cases, be done with aircraft, producers should insist that the aerial applicator pick a calm day for the spraying operation."

Aerial applicators can help by equipping their aircraft with the new types of drift reducing nozzles such as "Raindrop" or -by using drift reducing agents such as Target or Nalco-Trol. These equipment changes and additives will probably increase the costs of spraying operations. In the long run, however, this could be money well spent if there is danger of adjacent crops, Clayton believes.

Changes Made In Livestock Emergency Credit Program

—Changes in the special Livestock Emergency Credit Program are now in effect in Texas, according to William T. Grussendorf, county supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA).

The program, originated under the Emergency Livestock Credit Act of 1974, will continue to be administered through county offices of FmHA, the U.S. Department of Agriculture rural credit agency.

Under the program, FmHA guarantees loans made by banks and other commercial lenders to help farmers and ranchers continue in various lines of livestock production through a period of adverse economic conditions.

The bill (Public Law 94-35) signed June 16 by President Ford amended terms of the program established last year and extended its duration through Dec. 31, 1976.

Major changes in the program are;

—Farmers and ranchers assisted by loan guarantees must be primarily engaged in agricultural production, and livestock operations must account for a substantial portion (at least 25 percent) of their gross income, working time or investment. Previously FmHA required that more than 50 percent of gross income or time be devoted to livestock operations.

—The limit on any one borrower's guaranteed credit is raised to a $350,000 line of credit from the previous loan limit of $250,000.

—The maximum guarantee to a lender is raised to 90 percent of principal and interest from a previous guarantee limit of 80 percent of loss.

—Maximum term of a loan was raised to seven years, with a three-year renewal permitted. Under the previous terms, loans could be made for three years, with a two-year renewal permitted.

—Under certain conditions, satisfactory evidence of a borrower's repayment ability can be accepted by lenders in lieu of collateral for a guaranteed loan.

—The national ceiling on total guaranteed loans outstanding at any one time is reduced from $2 billion to $1.5 billion. (Loans guaranteed by FmHA through Mid-June totaled about $325 million.)

The amended Livestock Emergency Credit Act continues the previous guarantee authority for loans to farmers and ranchers in connection with the breeding, raising, fattening or marketing of beef or dairy cattle, swine, sheep, goats, chickens and turkeys. Interest rates are negotiated between borrowers and lenders.

Farmers and ranchers who may benefit from loan guarantees should apply to banks or other lending institutions. When details of a loan are negotiated, the lender may apply to FmHA for a loan guarantee.

County Democrats Pick Thompson As New Chairman

A 48-year-old Anson feed store operator was elected chairman of the Jones County Democratic Party recently following the resignation of Moody Galbreath, who had served as chairman for four years.

W. C. Thompson was named Galbreath's successor by the 14 precinct chairmen present at the meeting.

Galbreath, who was last elected to his post in 1974, resigned because he felt he lacked the time to devote his full attention to the position because of other conflicts, he told the chairmen.

Thompson, a past county chairman, served in that position from 1968-71 and will fill Galbreath's unexpired term, which ends next year.

A native of Jones County, Thompson was born in the Hodges community south of Anson and has lived in Anson 10 years.

Suzanne Wicker spent the weekend visiting with friends and relatives in Arlington.

BAYOU BOUNTY – Hearty with a touch of elegance, dishes like Crawfish Thermidor, spicy Corn Maque Choux and robust Derby Pie are characteristic of the singular charm of Cajun cooking.

Tempting Bounty From Bayou Country

The unique, highly seasoned taste of Cajun cooking has helped make southern Louisiana one of the more interesting tourist spots in the United States.

Today's Louisiana Cajuns are descendants of the hardworking, religious French Acadians who fled to this side of the world during the 17th century and formed colonies in the Canadian provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Some of the more hardy stock later found their way south, settling in Louisiana "bayou country" where small streams draped with exotic Spanish moss crisscross the marshy coast.

Murland Baudoin, Cajun innkeeper of the Holiday Inn-West in Baton Rouge, was raised on the distinctive French cuisine handed down by these original Acadians.

For an authentic Cajun dinner, Baudoin suggests Crawfish Thermidor, an elegant marriage of seafood and seasonings in a heavy sauce, Corn Maque Choux, a typical Cajun vegetable, and Derby Pie, a luscious mixture of roasted pecans and chocolate chips.

Crawfish Thermidor

- 6 scallop shells
- 1½ pounds crawfish tails and fat
- 2 shallots
- 2 tablespoons minced parsley
- ½ ounce brandy
- ½ cup white wine
- ½ cup cream
- 1 cup bechamel sauce
- Prepared mustard to taste (about 1 tsp.)
- Salt, pepper, cayenne to taste
- 2 ounces grated Italian cheese

Bechamel Sauce

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 3 tablespoons flour
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup hot milk

To prepare sauce, cook butter and flour for a few minutes over gentle heat. Warm milk and add to mixture about ⅓ at a time. Bring sauce to boil, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper; strain. Cook sauce very gently to avoid burning.

Fry crawfish in fat to color, one or two minutes; add shallots and parsley and cook about 10 minutes. Remove mixture from pan; heat brandy in same pan. Return shallots and parsley to pan; blend in cream, bechamel, seasonings and wine. Cook until liquid reduced by half (about 15 minutes); strain. Mix about ¾ of sauce with crawfish; add mustard. Fill shells with mixture and pour remainder of sauce over filled shells. Sprinkle with cheese and brown in 400-degree oven or under broiler.

Corn Maque Choux

- 8 ears fresh corn
- ½ cup chopped onion
- ¼ cup chopped bell pepper
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- ¼ cup cooking oil
- ½ cup roux*
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 4 fresh tomatoes, wedged for garnish

Clean corn thoroughly and slice from cob; scrape cob to get juice. Mix corn, onion, bell pepper and sugar. Season with salt and pepper and pour in heated cooking oil. Reduce heat to low, add roux* and stir. Cover and cook over low heat 45 minutes, stirring frequently. Garnish with tomato wedges. Serves 4 to 6 people.

*Roux: Melt 4 tablespoons butter over low heat; slowly stir in 3 tablespoons flour. Stir constantly; heat gently to brown slightly. Slowly add ¼ cup water, stirring until blended smoothly.

Derby Pie

- 1 stick butter or margarine
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs, beaten
- ½ cup flour
- 1 cup coarsely chopped pecans
- 1 16-ounce pkg. chocolate chips
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 9-inch unbaked pie shell

Stir sugar into melted and cooled butter. Add eggs, vanilla and flour; blend well. Stir in pecans and chocolate chips; pour into pie shell. Bake in 325-degree oven about 1 hour.

Reddy's helpful tips for your Room Air-Conditioners

Your air-conditioner will operate inefficiently if filters are not cleaned regularly. Dirt and lint, collected on the filters, restricts air flow to the coils. Clean filters every two weeks.

Let nature help you save energy by shading your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.

Remember to keep outside doors, windows, and fireplace dampers closed. If you have window units, close the heating vents near the floor, as cool air falls and can escape through vents.

You purchased fine home comfort when you bought your air conditioning unit. Properly maintained, it will offer you years of efficient service. A once-a-year check-up by your dealer pays dividends in savings on operating and breakdown costs.

McCaulley

By Mrs. Fred Kemp

Mrs. Zoe Encke resigned as English Teacher last week to accept a position as librarian and teacher of drama in the Anson Public Schools. Mrs. Encke had been with McCaulley Schools seven and one half years and served as librarian and sponsor of the Senior Classes for at least six of those years. I am sure McCaulley students will miss the warmth of her personality and her ability to make them feel secure and at ease while learning in her classes. She served as president of Fisher County Teachers Association last year.

Curtis Stevenson was allowed a weekend pass this week from M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston so he just may be allowed to return to his home before long.

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

Barbara and I, and our son Darrell, attended the annual West Texas Press Association Convention in San Angelo this past weekend. And being in the newspaper business in West Texas this is one of the high points of our year.

For many West Texas Publishers this is their only vacation. And for us it used to be about our only real vacation until we started closing in July for a week. But it still is a mini-vacation for us as it comes at about the time summer is over.

Because I, along with a great deal of help from Barbara, serve as executive director and secretary-treasurer of the Association, the weekend is a combination of work and play. Not only do we have the responsibility of registering all of the people attending and making many of the arrangements for the meeting, but we also attend the business sessions where we hope to pick up knowledge that helps us put out a better newspaper for the great people of Hamlin.

One of the highlights of the weekend session was a speech by House Speaker Bill Clayton. A number of years ago Clayton was on one of our programs concerning Water for West Texas. He was very impressive at that time but he has grown in stature considerably over the past several years. (We use the word stature figuratively because from our 6'5" vantage point he is very short.)

Two of the most impressive things that the Speaker had to say during his speech concerned future taxes and the new constitution that will be voted on this November.

Clayton offered a faint ray of hope that Texas can escape a massive new tax bill when the 65th Legislature meets in 1977.

He said the possibility of escaping the new taxes hinges on three conditions:

"If the economy continues to show signs of recovery and sales tax revenues increase; if a reorganization of the state executive department to increase efficiency occurs; and if oil and gas are deregulated. I am willing to predict that we may escape with no new taxes," speculated Clayton.

"Texas is being absolutely raped of its natural resources with no recourse," blasted Clayton in reference to federal regulation of oil and gas.

The speaker allowed that increased tax revenue from taxes on deregulated oil and gas could go a long way toward filling the state coffers, eliminating the need for the predicted massive tax bill believed to be necessary in the next legislature.

FROM RANGER JC—

Bill Cork, Track and Field Star, to Transfer to ACC

Bill Cork, track and field star from Hamlin High School and Ranger Junior College, announced Thursday he is transferring to Abilene Christian College.

Cork signed an ACC scholarship agreement Thursday for ACC track coach Don Smith at Abilene's Towne Crier Steakhouse.

Cork's father, Bill W. Cork Sr., and high school track coach, Bill Grissom, were in Abilene with the versatile athlete for the announcement.

Cork won three high school state individual championships and one Texas junior college state title and paced both Hamlin High and Ranger College to Texas team championships. He owns best marks of 9.6 and 21.3 in the sprints, 46.6 in the open quarter, 6-8 in the high jump and 23-5 in the long jump.

On relay assignments he has turned in a 46.1 quarter and 20.1 in the 220.

"He could have been in the 45s last year," Smith said. "If he had stayed healthy, noboby could have stayed with him."

Cork set a National JC Athletic Association record of 46.6 at the Wildcat Relays March 15. He also won the high jump and anchored both RJC winning relays and was named the JC division's outstanding athlete.

He was hampered later by a pulled hamstring muscle, but he did run a 46.59 to win the open quarter in the Texas JC meet, pace Ranger to the team championship and tie his own NJCAA record (although it was broken later). He was third in the national JC meet in 47.55.

"Cork is as fine a quartermiler as there is in the Southwest," Smith said. "And Billy Nelson (ACC sophomore-to-be from Caldwell) is right there with him. They are two of the best quartermilers in the Southwest."

Cork's signing gives ACC top potential in the mile relay next spring. "We're going after the mile relay if everybody stays healthy," Smith added.

Neison, who ran against Cork in Class AA state competition in Austin, ran 47.0 in the open quarter and 46.9 on a relay leg as an ACC freshman in 1975. The other top two candidates are sophomore-to-be Calvin Satberry from San Antonio Highlands (48.9 and 47.2r) and freshman Randy Baker of Houston Westbury (47.8).

At the 1974 state Class AA meet in Austin, Cork defeated Nelson in the open quarter, but Nelson anchored Caldwell to victories in both relays.

"The thing that makes Cork so valuable is that he's so versatile." Smith said. "He could be a great intermediate hurdler and he has the endurance to run the relays."

"He's a fine individual, an outstanding young man," Smith added. "I think many times you win with character. He's a real conscientious trainer."

Cork won state as a junior in the quarter (47.8) and high jump (6-4½) and repeated as state champ as a senior in the 440 (47.2). Hamlin also took the team title both years under coach Grissom. Cork won numerous other district and regional blue ribbons in the sprints, 440, high jum, long jump and relays.

He won all-state honors in high school twice in track and field and was all-district in both football and basketball at Hamlin. The 5-11, 140-pounder is a 1974 graduate of Hamlin High School and plans to study industrial education at ACC.

"We're happy to hear he's signing with ACC," Hamlin coach Grissom said. "We're glad he'll still be in Texas and close enough that we can still watch him run."

Cork was coached as a freshman at Ranger in 1974-75 by Orland Aldridge, who recently resigned at Ranger to coach at Garden City, Kan., Junior College.

Stamford Officer Named County Probation Officer

Louis E. Johnson, a member of the Stamford Police Department for 12 years, has been appointed juvenile probation officer for Jones County.

The Jones County commissioners and County Judge Leon Thurman, after reviewing 22 applications for the position, named Johnson to the position last Monday.

The office was created for the county following a grand jury recommendation earlier this year that the county look into obtaining a full time juvenile probation officer. Judge Thurman acted as juvenile judge and officer previously.

A Criminal Justice Council grant for $16,216 was approved by Gov. Dolph Briscoe, enabling the county to accept applications for the post. The grant was approved July 15, but became effective June 1.

Johnson will assume his duties Aug. 15.

Born and raised in Stamford, Johnson said he will continue to live there. His wife, Florene, is an LVN at Teakwood Manor. The couple has three sons, Roger, 20; Scott, 18; and Mike, 17.

Johnson attended school in Stamford and graduated from Ranger Junior College in 1956, following two years in the Army. He has taken some classes at Hardin-Simmons University and has lived in Stamford since 1960. Prior to that he had lived in Hamlin for a number of years.

He joined the Stamford police force June 2, 1963 and was a patrolman for three years. He became a sergeant and held that position for seven years, prior to being named assistant police chief under retired Police Chief B. Q. Cooper. He has continued to serve in that position under Police Chief Duayne Meford.

Bonds Cancels Saturday Meet the Piper Night

Hamlin football fans will have to wait another week to see a dress rehearsal of the 1975 Pipers as Coach David Bonds cancelled the Meet the Piper night scheduled here Saturday.

The first full dress look at the Pipers will be next Friday, Aug. 22, when the Pipers host Seymour here in a full scrimmage.

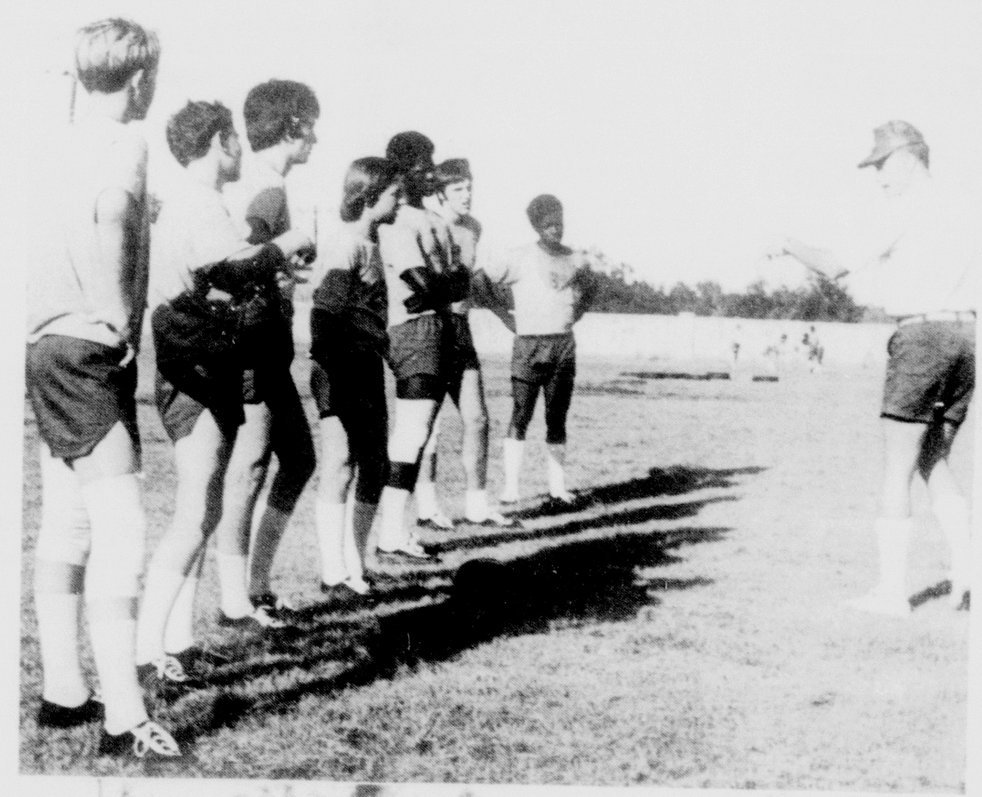

Coach Bonds called off the intra-squad scrimmage set for Saturday because of several minor injuries to a number of his varsity players.

Under UIL rules, the boys have been working out in shorts for the first part of this week and will don pads for the first time Friday morning.

Taking part in the workouts are 12 seniors, 15 juniors, 14 sophomores and 11 freshmen.

Coach Bonds has 14 returning lettermen to build his team around this season. He said Tuesday morning that the kids were looking real good and that they are having some very good workouts. The morning workouts start at 7 a.m. and the evening workouts begin at 6 p.m.

Coach Bonds said that he will be running the Wishbone offense again this year and will use the split-six defense again.

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(Aug. 7, 1925)

Almost all plans have been completed for what will probably be the biggest and grandest celebration ever staged by the business men of Hamlin. Numerous attractions, such as shows, merry-go-round, ferris wheel, rodeos, ball games, etc. have been booked to appear at this picnic.

The Picnic Committee wants to borrow 50 wash pots on Wednesday, Aug. 12, to cook the meat for the picnic. There will be a system of tagging the borrowed pots to prevent them from being lost. If you have a pot that you will loan, notify W. W. Collier either Monday or Tuesday of next week.

Everybody around Hamlin has heard of the "Wild-Cat" Lake or tank. This is on the Hood Ranch, nine miles north east of Hamlin. This famous lake of pretty deep water has been taken in by two owners, W. T. and M. W. Hood, and will hereafter be under their supervision. They have built some bathing facilities out there, such as dressing rooms, springboards and a high diving scaffold. A small fee of 25 cents will be charged for the privilege of enjoying this water.

Temporary organization of the Hamlin Chapter Izaak Walton League of America has been effected and petition for charter forwarded to the National headquarters containing the signatures of 18 Hamlin citizens, hunters, fishermen and lovers of the out doors. The Izaak Walton League is a National organization for the protection, propagation and conservation of our game, fish and wild life and the restoration of the outdoors of America.

Foster, who has been chief of police for 13 years, was accepted. His resignation, likewise, will become effective on Aug. 15.

Coaches Truman Nix, Jim Herridge and Harrell Blackburn of the Hamlin High School athletic staff are in San Antonio this week attending the annual Texas Coaching Association school. In attendance are about 1,500 Texas coaches. The school will close Friday evening with the annual North-South exhibition football game. The two teams are composed of the senior all-stars of the past season of Texas football.

Two new wildcats and one well being prepared for testing highlighted the oil news of the past several days in the Hamlin section.

TEN YEARS AGO

Joe Hudspeth's tire and appliance is observing their ninth anniversary with a special promotion this week. Twenty-five prizes are being given during the event. The 25 prizes include a General Electric portable T.V., a Marlin 22 rifle, two suiter Amelia Earhart Luggage, 16 cigarette lighter sets and six double roasters. There will be an election held in each of the school districts and results of both elections must be favorable before the districts can be consolidated.

T. C. Blankinship and Milburn Wink, Vocational Agriculture Teachers in Hamlin High School, will participate in the Statewide In-Service Education Workshop for Teachers of Vocational Agriculture, Aug. 10-13, according to George Hurt, State Director of Vocational Agriculture. Although Clayton did not come out directly in support of the new constitution to be voted on this fall, he did make a strong plea for its passage. While he admitted that there were some areas of the new constitution that he did not necessarily care for he said that his was probably the best that the people of West Texas could hope for.

It was his contention that Texas will get a new constitution, if not this time, it will the next or the next. And he felt that the longer we wait the more influence that the people of the major cities will have on any document that will be drawn. It was his opinion that this was probably the best document that West Texans could hope to come up with.

"The new constitution will give us tools to do some things for ourselves without waiting for federal intervention," he asserted. "If the voter is informed then the decision will be right for Texas," Clayton told the newsmen, telling them the responsibility was theirs.

MANMADE

A man made this beautiful little waterfall and improved his part of a little stream that ran by his house.

Another man on another stream threw trash in the water and let weeds grow up around it so that the beauty of the creek was obscured.

Man fashions many things out of that which God has created. Beauty or ugliness can result from our decisions as to what we will do with divine raw materials. Dedication to God and the desire to emulate Him usually makes the difference in what we do with what God has provided.

Let God find you in His church.

Philosopher Gets Off On Dangerous Ground When He Asks A Women's Lib Question

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One gets off on some dangerous ground this week but it's his lookout, not ours.

Dear editor:

I have never given much thought to Women's liberation except to conclude it's all right with me so long as the meals are on the table on time, but I'm now convinced men ought to be giving more attention to the subject. There's something there to be learned.

For instance, examine Indira Gandhi, the woman Prime Minister of one of the world's most populous countries and frequently pointed to as a prime example of women's ability to become political leaders.

When Mrs. Gandhi was found guilty of violating India's election laws and was faced with being barred from office, what does she do, hem and haw and dodge and hire a battery of lawyers and lie on television like a man would do? Of course not. She just got a law passed saying the law she violated wasn't there any more, never was in the first place, and anybody who objected was jailed.

I have not had the nerve to ask in the presence of women whether any of the people she jailed were women.

Changing the subject, which I'd better do in a hurry, I notice that some environmentalists, bent on protecting all species except possibly fleas when they'e on their dogs in their city apartments, have now come out against the story of Little Red Riding Hood, on the grounds that it "has done great damage to wolves by making them a symbol of evil."

Of course they're right about this. All that wolf did was eat up a grandmother and appropriate her clothes and eye glasses, which obviously she had no further use for. Grndmothers are not an endangered species and these slanders on wolves have got to stop.

It's the same thing with coyotes and sheep. Ranchers are always denouncing coyotes for destroying their flocks, whereas it's the sheep's fault for being so helpless. Why don't they take care of themselves and grow a shell like an armadillo? Nobody's going to pull the wool over an environmentalist's eyes. If they'd been here earlier we'd still have dinosaurs and a lot less oil to squabble over.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Sunflower Producers Urged To Exercise Patience, Caution

Early planted sunflower crops in Jones County have completed the bloom stage and are now in a period of grain filling, says County Agent, Kirby Clayton. Since this is the period in which oil contents and seed weight are being determined, farmers need to be careful not to stop plant growth too quickly with harvest-aid chemicals. Early killing could have a drastic effect on final yields.

The agent says that with the excellent moisture conditions prevailing on the High Plains, it could take four to six weeks after completion of the bloom stage for seed to reach full maturity.

By that time, he points out, the back of the head and stalk should be lemon yellow in color and most of the leaves will be dead or appear to be dying. The triangular shaped bracts on the outer edge of the head will be brown and brittle. The seed in the center of the head will be as dark in color and as firm as the seed on the outer edge.

When these characteristics are noted, the seed is mature but the fleshy head base (which when cut open with a knife looks somewhat like a sponge) will not be sufficiently dry for combining. To avoid adding this high-moisture foreign matter to the seed during the combing operation, the head base must be dry, Clayton cautions.

Several weeks could be required for the head base to dry naturally. During this period seed will begin to shatter and some yield will be lost. The best alternative is rush the final drying process with the use of a harvest-aid chemical.

Recently, Paraquat was cleared for use of a sunflower desiccant in Texas. The chemical may be applied at a rate of 1 to 2 pints per acre when sunflower seeds are mature, Clayton says. Five gallons of spray mix (Paraquat plus water) should be used when treating by air and 20 to 40 gallons with ground equipment. For best results, a surfactant such as Ortho X-77 should be added at a rate of 1 quart per 100 gallons of water.

Read all label directions carefully before using Paraquat, Clayton emphasizes.

Once a harvest-aid chemical is applied, the crop will be ready to harvest in 7 to 10 days. A combine equipped with a sunflower header attachment should be immediately available, because delays could be costly in terms of seed loss due to shattering and bird feeding.

"Keep in mind, Paraquat is a non-selective desiccant. This means it will kill any plant tissue it contacts, including cotton, sorghum and other crops in adjacent fields.

"Chemical drift is a potentially serious problem," Clayton says. "Since desiccation will, in most cases, be done with aircraft, producers should insist that the aerial applicator pick a calm day for the spraying operation."

Aerial applicators can help by equipping their aircraft with the new types of drift reducing nozzles such as "Raindrop" or -by using drift reducing agents such as Target or Nalco-Trol. These equipment changes and additives will probably increase the costs of spraying operations. In the long run, In the long run, however, this could be money well spent if there is danger of adjacent crops, Clayton believes.

Changes Made In Livestock Emergency Credit Program

—Changes in the special Livestock Emergency Credit Program are now in effect in Texas, according to William T. Grussendorf, county supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA).

The program, originated under the Emergency Livestock Credit Act of 1974, will continue to be administered through county offices of FmHA, the U.S. Department of Agriculture rural credit agency.

Under the program, FmHA guarantees loans made by banks and other commercial lenders to help farmers and ranchers continue in various lines of livestock production through a period of adverse economic conditions.

The bill (Public Law 94-35) signed June 16 by President Ford amended terms of the program established last year and extended its duration through Dec. 31, 1976.

Major changes in the program are;

—Farmers and ranchers assisted by loan guarantees must be primarily engaged in agricultural production, and livestock operations must account for a substantial portion (at least 25 percent) of their gross income, working time or investment. Previously FmHA required that more than 50 percent of gross income or time be devoted to livestock operations.

—The limit on any one borrower's guaranteed credit is raised to a $350,000 line of credit from the previous loan limit of $250,000.

—The maximum guarantee to a lender is raised to 90 percent of principal and interest from a previous guarantee limit of 80 percent of loss.

—Maximum term of a loan was raised to seven years, with a three-year renewal permitted. Under the previous terms, loans could be made for three years, with a two-year renewal permitted.

—Under certain conditions, satisfactory evidence of a borrower's repayment ability can be accepted by lenders in lieu of collateral for a guaranteed loan.

—The national ceiling on total guaranteed loans outstanding at any one time is reduced from $2 billion to $1.5 billion. (Loans guaranteed by FmHA through Mid-June totaled about $325 million.)

The amended Livestock Emergency Credit Act continues the previous guarantee authority for loans to farmers and ranchers in connection with the breeding, raising, fattening or marketing of beef or dairy cattle, swine, sheep, goats, chickens and turkeys. Interest rates are negotiated between borrowers and lenders.

Farmers and ranchers who may benefit from loan guarantees should apply to banks or other lending institutions. When details of a loan are negotiated, the lender may apply to FmHA for a loan guarantee.

BAYOU BOUNTY – Hearty with a touch of elegance, dishes like Crawfish Thermidor, spicy Corn Maque Choux and robust Derby Pie are characteristic of the singular charm of Cajun cooking.

Tempting Bounty From Bayou Country

The unique, highly seasoned taste of Cajun cooking has helped make southern Louisiana one of the more interesting tourist spots in the United States.

Today's Louisiana Cajuns are descendants of the hardworking, religious French Acadians who fled to this side of the world during the 17th century and formed colonies in the Canadian provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Some of the more hardy stock later found their way south, settling in Louisiana "bayou country" where small streams draped with exotic Spanish moss crisscross the marshy coast.

Murland Baudoin, Cajun innkeeper of the Holiday Inn-West in Baton Rouge, was raised on the distinctive French cuisine handed down by these original Acadians.

For an authentic Cajun dinner, Baudoin suggests Crawfish Thermidor, an elegant marriage of seafood and seasonings in a heavy sauce, Corn Maque Choux, a typical Cajun vegetable, and Derby Pie, a luscious mixture of roasted pecans and chocolate chips.

Crawfish Thermidor

6 scallop shells
1½ pounds crawfish tails and fat
2 shallots
2 tablespoons minced parsley
½ ounce brandy
½ cup white wine
½ cup cream
1 cup bechamel sauce
Prepared mustard to taste (about 1 tsp.)
Salt, pepper, cayenne to taste
2 ounces grated Italian cheese

Bechamel Sauce

2 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup hot milk

To prepare sauce, cook butter and flour for a few minutes over gentle heat. Warm milk and add to mixture about ⅓ at a time. Bring sauce to boil, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper; strain. Cook sauce very gently to avoid burning.

Fry crawfish in fat to color, one or two minutes; add shallots and parsley and cook about 10 minutes. Remove mixture from pan; heat brandy in same pan. Return shallots and parsley to pan; blend in cream, bechamel, seasonings and wine. Cook until liquid reduced by half (about 15 minutes); strain. Mix about ¾ of sauce with crawfish; add mustard. Fill shells with mixture and pour remainder of sauce over filled shells. Sprinkle with cheese and brown in 400-degree oven or under broiler.

Corn Maque Choux

8 ears fresh corn
½ cup chopped onion
¼ cup chopped bell pepper
1 teaspoon sugar
¼ cup cooking oil
½ cup roux*
Salt and pepper to taste
4 fresh tomatoes, wedged for garnish

Clean corn thoroughly and slice from cob; scrape cob to get juice. Mix corn, onion, bell pepper and sugar. Season with salt and pepper and pour in heated cooking oil. Reduce heat to low, add roux* and stir. Cover and cook over low heat 45 minutes, stirring frequently. Garnish with tomato wedges. Serves 4 to 6 people.

*Roux: Melt 4 tablespoons butter over low heat; slowly stir in 3 tablespoons flour. Stir constantly; heat gently to brown slightly. Slowly add ¼ cup water, stirring until blended smoothly.

Derby Pie

1 stick butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, beaten
½ cup flour
1 cup coarsely chopped pecans
1 16-ounce pkg. chocolate chips
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 9-inch unbaked pie shell

Stir sugar into melted and cooled butter. Add eggs, vanilla and flour; blend well. Stir in pecans and chocolate chips; pour into pie shell. Bake in 325-degree oven about 1 hour.

County Democrats Pick Thompson As New Chairman

A 48-year-old Anson feed store operator was elected chairman of the Jones County Democratic Party recently following the resignation of Moody Galbreath, who had served as chairman for four years.

W. C. Thompson was named Galbreath's successor by the 14 precinct chairmen present at the meeting.

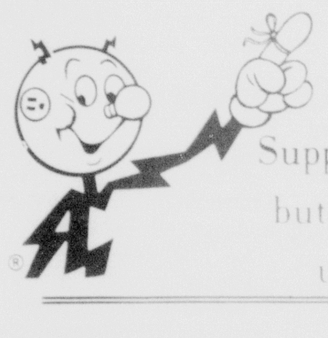

Galbreath, who was last elected to his post in 1974, resigned because he felt he lacked the time to devote his full attention to the position because of other conflicts, he told the chairmen.

Thompson, a past county chairman, served in that position from 1968-71 and will fill Galbreath's unexpired term, which ends next year.

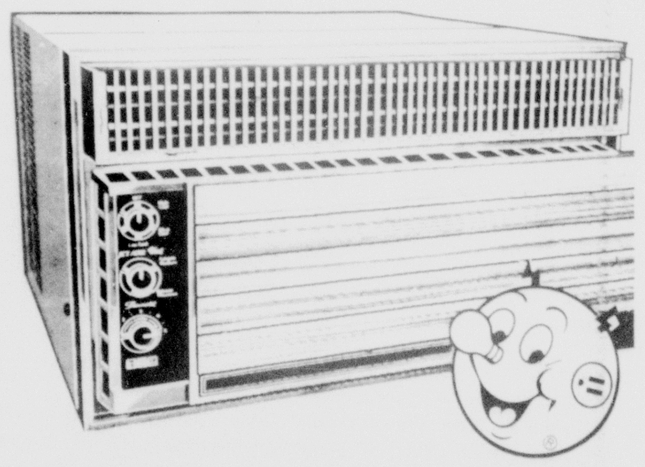

A native of Jones County, Thompson was born in the Hodges community south of Anson and has lived in Anson 10 years.

Suzanne Wicker spent the weekend visiting with friends and relatives in Arlington.

Supplies the energy-but only YOU can use it wisely!

Reddy's helpful tips for your Room Air-Conditioners

Your air-conditioner will operate inefficiently if filters are not cleaned regularly. Dirt and lint, collected on the filters, restricts air flow to the coils. Clean filters every two weeks.

Let nature help you save energy by shading your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.

Remember to keep outside doors, windows, and fireplace dampers closed. If you have window units, close the heating vents near the floor, as cool air falls and can escape through vents.

You purchased fine home comfort when you bought your air conditioning unit. Properly maintained, it will offer you years of efficient service. A once-a-year check-up by your dealer pays dividends in savings on operating and breakdown costs.

Mrs. Zoe Encke resigned as English Teacher last week to accept a position as librarian and teacher of drama in the Anson Public Schools. Mrs. Encke had been with McCaulley Schools seven and one half years and served as librarian and sponsor of the Senior Classes for at least six of those years. She served as president of Fisher County Teachers Association last year.

Curtis Stevenson was allowed a weekend pass this week from M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston so he just may be allowed to return to his home before long.
